DUTY • HONOR • COUNTRY

Throughout the years Lee R. Anderson, Sr. has donated millions of dollars to many organizations and health and educational institutions, creating a wealth of opportunity for those he may never meet. For all of his philanthropy, one topic is dear to his heart: U.S. veterans.

Anderson ensures that his company, APi Group Inc., provides and creates employment opportunities for U.S. veterans and wounded warriors through his Leader Development Program and Veteran Rotation Program. Many of those employed have been groomed to lead one of his subsidiaries or have already earned management to senior-level positions at his company.
